

MANY ENTERTAINMENTS FILL THE DEBUTANTES' WEEK

Sherry's to-morrow for her daughter, Miss Sarah Larkin, and on Tuesday afternoon at the Colony Club, in Madison avenue, Mrs. Ernest B. Adee will present her daughter, Miss Geraldine Fitzgerald Adee, and earlier in the day Mrs. Drexel Dahlgren will give a luncheon at Sherry's for Miss Grace Bristed, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Astor Bristed. Another luncheon of the day for debutantes is being given by Mrs. Clarence Winthrop Bowen at her home, and Miss Florence Sullivan will give one for Miss Esther Denny and other debutantes at Sherry's. Mrs. Joseph Wood Cushman will introduce her daughter, Miss Mary Allerton Cushman, on Wednesday, and on that day Mrs. J. Walter Wood will give a luncheon at Sherry's for her daughter, Miss Nathalie Wood, for whom Mrs. Alfred Chalmers gave a theatre party and dance on Wednesday night. A luncheon of Thursday is being given at Sherry's by Dr. Henry A. Griffin for his second daughter, Miss Kate Griffin, who is a debutante, and Mrs. George Flint Warren will introduce her daughter, Miss Isabel Meredith Warren, at an afternoon reception.

The one large dance of the week will be given on Friday night at Sherry's by Mr. and Mrs. James Byrne for their debutante daughter, Miss Helen McGregor Byrne, and on that afternoon reception for debutantes will be given by Mr. Allen Townsend and Mrs. Harry Sedgewick. Mrs. Townsend is introducing her youngest daughter, Miss Marion Townsend, and Mrs. Sedgewick her two daughters, the Misses Adelaide and Allen Sedgewick, who have been in Europe for several years. They are granddaughters of the late Mr. and Mrs. James A. G. Sedgewick, and a luncheon will be given for them on December 16 by their aunt, Mrs. J. Rich Steers.

More debutantes will be introduced on Saturday, among them being Miss Frances Townsend Riker, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Riker, for whom already several dinners and other entertainments have been given. Other debutantes of Saturday will be Miss Grace Colgate, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Colgate, and Miss Helen Culver Kerr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Culver Kerr. As practically all of the debutantes mentioned have already helped at the receptions of their friends they will not be altogether strangers. During next week Miss Ethel Simmons, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Herbert Simmons, will be introduced, and will also Miss Dorothy Camp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John McKesson Camp, and Miss Margaret Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Thompson.

Mrs. Ben Ali Haggin will give a luncheon at Sherry's December 15 for her debutante niece, Miss Frederick Bull, for whom on January 23 at the New Colony Club her grandmother, Mrs. W. Linnman Bull, will give a small dance.

While there has been some delay in completing the new Colony Club it will be in readiness shortly after Christmas, and there is already much interest in its opening. The new ballroom will be used for the first time on the afternoon of January 3, through the courtesy of Mrs. Henry Addison Alexander, for an entertainment to aid the Speedwell Country Homes Society. The new club is at Park avenue and Sixty-second street, the entrance being at 51 East Sixty-second street. Miss Ruth Draper is to give some of her original and amusing monologues and afterward tea will be served in the supper room. Tickets including tea at $5 each may be obtained at Mrs. Alexander at her home, 840 Park avenue, or at the entrance to the ballroom on the day of the entertainment.

The Speedwell Homes Society cares for convalescent and abandoned babies and its work is not confined to the summer months. The home is in Morristown, N. J., and there is no limit to the number of children taken, provided there are sufficient funds. The age limit is from 1 day old to 12 years of age.

Among those who have already secured tickets are Mrs. Charles B. Alexander, Mrs. Ben Ali Haggin, Mrs. William H. Bliss, Mrs. E. Henry Harriman, Mrs. Walter Bliss, Miss Bliss, Mrs. George G. Frelinghuysen, Mrs. James L. Barclay, Mrs. Harry Harkness Flagler, Mrs. Henry D. Babcock, Mrs. Howard C. Brookway, Mrs. Paul D. Cravath, Mrs. W. North Duane, Mrs. W. Bayard Cutting, Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., Mrs. John Jay Chapman, Mrs. William P. Hardenbergh, Mrs. Henry Mills Day, Miss Winifred Ivett Duncan and Mrs. John O. H. Pitney.

The formal opening of the new open air ice skating rink, or the Biltmore ice gardens, as it has been called, will take place to-morrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock when a skating tea will be held under the auspices of women of society for the benefit of the East Side Settlement House. The proceeds will be turned over to the fund for maintaining the settlement, which is at Seventy-sixth street and East River.

Skating will be general and during both afternoon and evening there will be exhibitions by Mr. and Mrs. Irving Brookway, who are among the most proficient amateur skaters in society.

One of the first amateur entertainments of the season by young women of society will be given in the ballroom of the Ritz-Carlton on Friday night and Saturday afternoon and evening, when the musical comedy "Thalia" will be presented for the benefit of the Grosvenor Neighborhood House. "Thalia" was written by Miss Grace Hollingsworth and Miss Grace Henry and was given very successfully a few years ago by amateurs for charity. It has been done over by the authors with many new and interesting features and the entertainment will introduce a cast and chorus composed of young people who are most proficient in the matter of amateur theatricals.

Mr. S. Hinman Bird will have the title role and the other principals include the Misses Genevieve Sanford, Dorothy Anderson, Grace Henry and Claire Van Lennep, John Fritz Acheles, Paul Chapin, John Hodges and Charles Pyle. There will be an opportunity for several attractive dances by the members of the chorus, which includes Mrs. William P. Phillips, the Misses Anne Bradley, Louisa Butler, Esther Auchincloss, Josephine Wells, Flora McAlpin, Naomi Townsend, Elizabeth Carson, Caramel Carroll, Amy Bradish Johnson, Collyer Goss, Cary Hackstaff, Katherine Trevor, Louise Hadley and Gretchen Damroch.

Among the young men who will take part are Shepard Kreech, Francis Watrous, Clarence Brentice, Flavel Lohrman, Augustus Richard Coe, Sloan Colt and William Carson.

Assisting as ushers and programme sellers will be many debutantes of this and last season, among them the Misses Isabel Stettinius, Julia Gilbert, Esther Cleveland, Mary Knapp, Gertrude Horst, Charlotte Finch, Elizabeth Burrill, Jeannette Priscilla, Dorothy and Katherine Flagler, Elizabeth Sablin, Gertrude Pardee, Gertrude Mall, Caroline Wyeth, Edith and Margaret Sloan, Harriet and Virginia McKee, Adrienne Iselin, Margaret Luce, Florence Chappell, Augusta Dixon, Priscilla Bartlett, Peggy La Fays, Theodora Dunham, Rita Hoker, Helen Flake and Mildred Eddy. Tickets at $3 each have been placed on sale with Miss Louise Dixon, 52 West Forty-ninth street.

Some of those who have already taken boxes are Misses Fredrick E. Lewis, Richard C. Colt, Harry J. Luce, Frederick Eddy, William Piersen Hamilton, Herbert L. Satterlee, Howard Carroll, Charles Bradley, Hugh Auchincloss, Joel Ellis Fisher, Cortlandt P. Dixon and Harris Colt.
